

Mini Read

In recent Facebook posts, the camp of Coldwell and Wink, are trying to belittle the efforts of contributors to this website/blog.

They truly believe that they and they alone, have all the inside information on what is happening in GIN, the fraud that has been going on for the past couple of years, and what is going to happen in the coming months.

WRONG!!

It doesn't matter if you think your talking to Judge Gettleman is making a difference (it's not); or whether you think by acting as a little secret group, people will sing your praises for revealing information (they won't); or that you think you're being oh-so-clever by backstabbing people, basically talking from both sides of your mouth; I would say this:

this is not about you, this is about everyone who was ever a part of GIN. It's not about promoting your current scams, such as IBMS or BePureCleanse ($249 to shit your way to better health? Really?). This is about exposing the fraud that was and is, still in GIN. What you clowns seem to forget is, Leonard Coldwell and Peter Wink were very much a part of that scam until they both got fired! And yes, the silly pictures on GINTruth.com DO add something to each post and have a meaning behind each and every one of them. Not something you clump nuggets would actually understand!
