You know that you are mentally ill right? You have a multiple personality disorder or are manic depressive. Its easy to see in your schizophrenic behavioral patterns. But anyway my friend YOU are now also one that is spreading the defamation. Just because someone created a website with lies that you guys are referring too does the lies they published not more real or true. You fell for a big scheme and that is why all involved get it because their defense is that they got it from some other website and simply repeated it. Okay buddy now the law is different if you state that something is true or right YOU are the one making the false accusations etc. and YOU are responsible. I will pull them apart in a way you have never seen before. Plus some will find out that they have never dealt with a person like me the hard way. Plus all of you guys are so unbelievable naive that is so funny. Just wait its coming and its coming hard. You really thing a man that had 4 million seminar attendees, constuts for the largest companies in the word, has sold $7 million books etc etc is just blowing steam how naive or delusional are you? You dont have any common sense? Cant you put 2 plus 2 together? Where do all the testimonials come from including congress, George Bush, Congressman Joe Wilson, Senator Lindsay Graham etc etc etc Do you have even the tiniest sense of reality left? See how non logical your statements are? Why am I the highest paid consultant for IBM etc ? Just ask for a brain for Christmas and you should really stay out of this - believe me on that one! You have never dealt with rich people like me that believe getting even is the only way to live. You have never dealt with someone that has my contacts worldwide. If I would be you I would stay out of it for 4 month and than write me and apologize. Nothing absolutely nothing they say in their publications about me is true. And the truth will come out and hurt them hard
