Would it interest you to know that the ECC, CIA, EBI, IME, NSA, IRS, OPM, ATF, DEA, NASA, INTERPOL, HS [Homeland Security] and all the other members of the alphabet gang are all privately owned corporations and none of them are or ever has been an agency of: "United States, Inc." The United States government always held some stock in these corporations but never outright owned or controlled any of them? Their employees receive their paychecks from OPM, which belongs to the IMF, which is the property of the United Nations, which belongs to Israel and the Royal and Elite Class of Europe! All of the alphabet gangs are now the registered property of the: "United Nations," Is it no wonder that President Wilson's League of Nations never got off the ground and that out of 267 Nations on the Earth only 71 are members of the United Nations?

All of this deception is compounded by the refusal of ordinary Americans to realize, know or understand that it is this secrecy and duplicity of privately owned corporations, being surreptitiously portrayed as American agencies and government, coupled with the deceit and endless greed of Israel; European Bankers and the Royal and Elite families of the World, that have come together to fleece the American people like the sheep they truly are and unfortunately, Americas' public apathy and ignorance only serves to reinforce the lie!

Leonard Coldwell plagiarizes from another website and his followers believe it's his own writing! Never mind the fact that they totally forget that he's as good at writing English as an 8 year old. (Sorry 8 year olds, I shouldn't insult you like that, I know.)

In the images to the left, you can see Lenny's writings and the website it clearly came from. I guess he was hoping no-one would notice and as usual, sing his praises. This is nothing but pure plagiarism. Of course, the 'doktor' that bought his Ph.D's from a degree mill, neither knows this information for himself and is not literate enough to write as well as he would like you to believe!

The trouble with people who believe in Lenny is, they believe in absolutely everything that he says, without even bothering to do any fact checking! I guess stupid is as stupid does!

His [plagiarised] claim of learning things as a 'young American' is also guashed by the fact in 2004, he was still a German citizen!

Seems to me a person who became an American citizen under suspect circumstances, should not be lecturing to real Americans, about their history, or indeed, acting as some kind of knowledgeable expert on the matter, when he is clearly not! Nor does he make any reference to the website he stole his information from.
